

THE HICKMAN COW LER.

HICKMAN, KY.

FRIDAY, FEB. 15, 1890.

MISS ROSE ELIZABETH CLEVELAND is now in her winter home at Naples, Fla., where she has a fine orange grove and a cozy six-room house.

LATE advice from Boston state that there has been another battle between the Democrats and the Republicans in which the former again got the worst of it, losing 28 killed and 45 wounded.

Mrs. HARRISON has consented that her and Mrs. McKee's little dresses may not be soiled with the understanding that the work and shoulders, back and front, shall admit of her disposing of Mr. Harrison as desired.

If the election had been postponed a few months, Cleveland would have carried Indiana. The prominent Republicans of that state are all leaving for Tampa and taking the public boat with them.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND signed the bill creating the Department of Agriculture, and the President of the Senate, Mr. Harrison, an additional member of the cabinet.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent says that the German public expects the war will be any trouble to the United States and America. Germany, the correspondent asserts, will make friendly proposals with a view to a settlement of the dispute.

It is official: President Cleveland will return to the state of New York to live on the expiration of his term of office, and on March 5, resume the practice of his profession in New York City, having associated himself as counsel with the law firm of Bangs, Blesinger, Tracy & May.

THE day of March approach, and still our republican neighbors and friends are not happy. Who will draw the grand prize in this political lottery is the question for most of our home republican friends, and very many without, hold tickets in the contest.

THE judiciary committee of the house will report a bill tomorrow for the reorganization of the courts. It provides that no judge of any court in the United States before he can become a citizen, and thus gain the privilege of holding office, he must first declare his intention of becoming a citizen.

THE Athens Constitution asks why it should be that the majority in Congress do something. The answer is very simple. They don't. The Republic is not there to see that they do nothing that ought to be done, and they are not there to see that they do nothing that ought to be done.

No effort seems to be spared by the Arkansas attorney to capture the re-elected assassin of the late John M. Clayton. A citizen of Conway county, the murder was committed there, and he feels confident the guilty men will be speedily captured and hung before they can get into prison.

A GOOD deal is being said by our exchange about the Department of Agriculture. It is a vague sort of idea about a new law in relation to the dignity to the labor of tillage, and the soil and prove of great practical benefit to the farmer.

Under this law the first step was to divide the voting precincts so that the number of votes in each precinct would not exceed 300. This gives every voter access to the polls, and prevents the influence of the moneyed class in the election.

THE Louisville Times publishes the following interesting item: "Lieut. Gov. Ryan's father again a good part of his life he has been keeping a little inn in the town of his County, and the son reveals his education as a freeholder of the County." That is the next Governor of Kentucky, and he has a brother-in-law in the Senate of Tennessee.

In these days of bitter partisanship, it is pleasant now and then to hear of a party leader who is not only a good man, but a good citizen. Such a man is Mr. Harrison.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

HICKMAN, KY.

FRIDAY, FEB. 15, 1890.

MISS ROSE ELIZABETH CLARK, who is now in her eighth year, was born at Naples, Pa., where she has a fine orange grove and a very nice room.

Late advice from St. Louis state that there has been another battle between the Germans and the British in which the former were the worst off, losing 25 killed and 45 wounded.

MRS. HARRISON has consented that her and Mrs. McKee's last dresses may be sold, with the understanding that the net proceeds, back and forth, shall amount to five dollars for Mr. Harrison's debts.

If the election had been postponed a few months, Cleveland would have carried Indiana. The prominent Republican county officers are all leaving for Louisville and taking the public mind with them.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND signed the bill creating the Department of Agriculture, which will make a cabinet officer, and nominated Norman J. Colburn, of Missouri, for the secretary of the department.

THE Standard, a Republican paper, says that the German capital expects the treaty will be very trouble to the United States and America.

THE Republican paper says that the Congressional District in the South where the negro voters are a majority were the whites.

THE official President Cleveland will return to the state of New York to live out the remainder of his term of office, and on March 3, resume the practice of his profession in New York City, where he has several clients.

THE March 10th approach, and still our republican neighbors and friends are not happy. Who will draw the grand prize in this political lottery is the question.

THE Judiciary committee of the house will report tomorrow the naturalization law. It provides that an alien shall live five years in the United States before he can become a citizen, and does away with the present requirement of declaration of intention.

THE Atlanta Constitution asks why it should be necessary for Congress to do anything. The answer is very simple. They must. The Democrats think there ought to be some, and they are not there to do it.

NO effort seems to be made by the Arkansas authorities to capture the red-headed assassin of the late John M. Clayton. A citizen of Conway county, where the murder was committed, states that he has confident the guilty man will be apprehended and the law will be enforced.

A GOOD deal is being said by our exchange about the report of Agriculture, which Congress proposes to create. This is a vague sort of idea about such a new bureau in the department of the interior, but it is not a matter of great practical benefit to the farmer.

WE are inclined to think that the report will simply be a constitutional law for political use.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, on last Saturday, immediately removed Mr. Edgerton, president of the civil service commission, and appointed ex-Attorney General Thompson, of North Carolina, to succeed him.

THE trouble with Mr. Edgerton appears to have been that he had not the slightest sympathy with the object which his commission was established, and lost no opportunity to say so.

HAVE, the Birmingham order still insists that he is innocent of the terrible charge against him. The evidence being developed against him at the trial however, is of such an overwhelming character as to leave him no doubt that he committed the crime and assisted in accomplishing the murder of his wife and daughter, in order that he might marry the Misses of the house.

THE Louisville Times publishes the following note after a review of "The Life of Bryan's father" as a good part of his history keeping a little better than the Louisville Courier-Journal, and the son's career his education as a beneficiary of the Civil War. This is likely to be the best government of Kentucky, and he has a number of friends in the Senate of Tennessee.

THE wife of the President elect appears, continues to be something of a social reformer. It is reported as saying she will not be tied down by the formalities which surround the children of the White House. If she wishes to see any of her friends, she will call on them, in defiance of the rule that the "first lady of the land" must not make calls. Her husband has long been known, and in this she may see to it that she will not all, she directs the idea of "being made a dress of" and says she will not wear a dress of a future.

AN EXTRA SESSION.

The Republican leaders appear to be settling down into the conviction that an extra session of Congress is inevitable.

ALL houses of revenue legislation at this session are practically abandoned, and the extra session which was called for the purpose of passing the revenue bill, is now a thing of the past.

A caveat at this time that the chances are strong that the bill will not be passed before the session closes.
